

COURSE OVERVIEW

Academic Integrity

- ✓ Available in workbook
- ✓ Available in eLearning

ITEM #SCH 216

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic integrity is the foundation of meaningful learning. It means being honest in your work, giving credit to others when appropriate, and taking responsibility for your own learning.

In this course, you'll learn what academic integrity is, why it matters, and how to avoid common mistakes like plagiarism, cheating, and misuse of technology. By practicing academic integrity, you'll build skills, confidence, and a reputation for honesty that will benefit you in school, work, and life.
